

Guide to Completing the General Application for Farm Classification

Instructions and Examples

This document is to assist property owners in filling out the General Application for Farm Classification. The application form is designed to accommodate many different farm products, so not every section will be applicable to every farmer. Please do not fill out this document. Use the General Application for Farm Classification Form located at www.bcassessment.ca/forms.

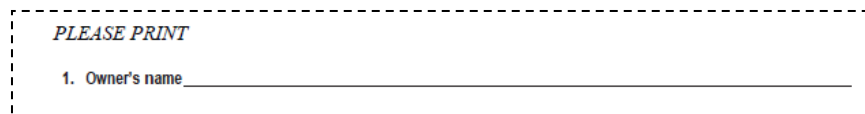

In order for land to qualify for farm class, both an application and qualifying farm activity/income are required.

List any applicable roll numbers in the space provided, using the format of Area - Jurisdiction - Roll Number. Assessment Roll Number is a unique identifier for each property. If you have had sales of qualifying agricultural products on your property during the year preceding application, report them in section 7. Reported farm production must be accompanied by receipts or sales logs to verify farm gate income. Include all applicable livestock or nursery purchase receipts and all livestock processing receipts.

A full list of qualifying agricultural products, as well as farm activities that do not qualify, is included in the Classification of Land as a Farm Regulation (BC Reg 411/95). Sales of value-added products and derivatives of agricultural products are not qualifying farm sales. You can only claim the value of the raw products produced on the farm. You can view the Farm Regulation at www.bclaws.ca/civix/document/id/complete/statreg/411_95.

Here are some general examples of how to report your income. Your situation may vary from the examples shown.

INCOME FROM PAST SALES, INCLUDING BREEDING PRODUCTS, AND HORSE STUD SERVICES PROVIDED

Livestock born and raised on the property (including horses)

Type of Livestock	Year Born	Quantity Born	Quantity Sold	Date Sold	Gross Income From Livestock Sold a	Processing Costs if applicable b	Gross Income Less Process Costs a - b
EX: Cattle	2012	9	8	Sept 15	$ $4000	$ $1500	$ $2500

Processing costs such as slaughter, cutting and wrapping costs should be deducted ONLY if the reported sale price included those costs.

If you have sold livestock which was born and raised on your property, report those sales in the “Income from Past Sales” section. Attach any receipts from the sale of livestock, as well as receipts from any processing. All processing must be done at a licensed slaughter facility.

Livestock purchased and raised (including horses)

Type of Livestock	Purchased			Sold			Gross Income from Livestock Sold a - b = c	Processing Costs if applicable d	Gross Income Less Process Costs c - d
	#	Weight (if applicable)	Cost b	#	Weight (if applicable)	Price a
EX: Horse	1	n/a	$2000	1	n/a	$5000	$3000	n/a	$3000
Beef	9	2250 lbs	$2340	9	7650 lbs	$7956	$5616	Sold live	$5616

Processing costs such as slaughter, cutting and wrapping costs should be deducted ONLY if the reported sale price included those costs.

If you bought and resold livestock, report it as shown above. Include receipts from the purchase and sale of animals, as well as any processing receipts if applicable. For horse sales, provide the contact information for purchaser and seller.

Poultry and Egg Production

If you are producing eggs, report the total quantity produced, and the quantity marketed (sold), typically in dozens of eggs. Report the total sale price (price per dozen X dozens sold).

If you are raising meat birds, record your flock size, the number of birds you’ve produced, and the number of birds you’ve marketed (sold) in the reporting period. Record your total sale price (price per bird X number of birds sold).

Total Income from Sales of Qualifying Agricultural Products (A)	$
Total Income from Horse Stud Services Provided (B)	$

Add up all income reported throughout section 7 to arrive at the Total Income from Sales of Qualifying Agricultural Products. If you've received income from horse stud fees, report it here. Please ensure you've included any relevant receipts.

UNREALIZED VALUE FROM PRODUCTS HELD FOR SALE AND TO BE SOLD WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR

Unrealized value refers to the value of qualifying agricultural products such as crops and livestock that have been produced on the land in the reporting period that have not been sold but are available for sale in the following year. With respect to livestock, only livestock held for human or animal consumption is considered. If you make a claim here, you may NOT claim that value in the following year when the product is sold.

Livestock Raised and Held for Producing Food for Human or Animal Consumption and Other Qualifying Agricultural Products (e.g. crops)

Type of Livestock or Other Product	Quantity Held Over	Purchase Date	Purchase Cost	Market Value Per Unit	Estimated Value (minus purchase cost)

Section 10

10. Farm Site Plan
Please draw the layout of the property under application. Locate and label buildings, fenced areas, cropped areas and unused areas. (Show areas where crops are planted and to be planted).

Use section 10 to draw a general diagram of your farm site. This will assist BC Assessment staff during on-site inspections. Please show buildings, various planted areas, pens, etc.

When land is being farmed by someone other than the property owner, you must submit a written lease along with your application. You can either provide a copy of an existing lease, or complete Section 13 of the Application form. To be valid for assessment purposes, a lease must clearly identify the land, and include the amount being paid to lease it, the names and signatures of the property owner and farmer, a start date, signing date, the size of the land being leased, how the farmer is using the leased land, and duration of the lease or lease expiry date. (It is a common error to leave the lease expiry date field blank, but this is required information.)

BC Assessment can only process the application, and grant farm class on a leased property, if all of the information requested in the lease document is provided.

Note that the lease fee does not qualify as farm income for assessment purposes. In the case of land leased to a farmer, there must be production and sales of farm products in sufficient amounts to qualify the land.

Important Dates:

The Classification of Land as a Farm Regulation requires that your application be submitted no later than October 31st of each year, for farm class to be granted for the following year.
